St. Vrain Board of Education

Debbie Lammers over Alexander Sharp

No one in Niwot is surprised that Debbie Lammers is running for SVSD Board of Education. And we aren't either. She's a natural choice—a woman who led the charge in the district's successful mill levy override and bond campaign, a resolute volunteer and an active parent. She's a powerhouse who gets things done, and she has solid knowledge of district issues, challenges and history. As for the future, Lammers is focusing on building community confidence in the board and bettering district accountability.
